Dear Sir,

Congratulations...

As per your Interview was conducted in SC AUTO Industry for Singapore location, your first interview round has been qualified for the positions. Engineer. as per client's requirements, you have to send scan copies all of your documents and all of these documents are mandatory to send before the technical round. So arrange the documents as soon as possible.

Documents:

1. Passport
2. Highest qualification certificate
3. Passport size photograph
4. Current company offer letter or salary slip or experience certificate
5. Profile verification certificate(mandatory)

family Accommodation - (Maximum 2 family members are allowed)

Note-As per the result of your interview declared and the client is asking for the submission of documents will be done on or before 08th of July 2018. there is a chance of cancellation of candidate's profile and we will not be responsible for that. So it is thereby informed to you that please submit all of your documents with the verification certificate of your profile. Please do the needful as soon as possible so that we can proceed furthermore.

As per client requirement you will have to arrange profile verification certificate also...

Profile verification certificate means they want your full profile verified. Means all of your certificates (Educational and experience certificate) should be verified by an reauthorized ISO certified agency. That agency will check all of your certificates and will verify everything. That agency will call in all the companies in which you have work experience and will check your experience certificates are original or not. After verification they will provide you a certificate with stamp. In which they will take all the responsibilities of originality of your documents. Means if there will be anything wrong in your certificates then you and that agency will be responsible for that. So you have to find an agency like this who are providing this kind of certificate.

HELP- In case if you are not able to get any agency in your area please tell us asap so that we can find the other solutions so that we can also provide this certificate with in 2 to 3 days soft copy on your mail id and hard copy to you home address by courier .

Final Interview Date: 09th of June 2018..(Skype)

Note-Sunday office will open.

Note-For any Query please call me or send me a mail

Thanks & Regards
